

ASIAN MARINE SERVICES PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

Additional Agenda Proposal by Shareholder

Pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Act B.E.2535 (1992) and an Amendment to the Act, Section 89/28, it is prescribed that "a shareholder or several shareholders holding shares and having voting rights in combined amount of not less than five (5) percent of the amount of total votes of the company may submit a written request to the Board of Directors to consider include the requested issue in the agenda of the shareholders meeting. Such issue should be specified whether it is for information, approval or consideration as the case may be, together with the details of the proposed issue either for an annual general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting by complying with the requirements prescribed and notified by the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission. "In practice, such matter proposed by the shareholder(s) for consideration on the meeting date might be necessarily postponed due to insufficient supplementary information for consideration thus resulting in waste of time and additional expenses on the part of both the Company and the shareholders.

The Board of Directors deems it appropriate to give an opportunity to a shareholder or shareholder group having combined voting rights of not less than five (5) percent of the total amount of votes of the Company or from one hundred thousand shares up to submit the issue to the Board for consideration of its inclusion on the meeting agenda prior to the meeting date. Such issue should be related and truly beneficial to the Company.
